Human Design Narrative

as calculated by Sputnik

Essence

PNK, your chart reads like a living map. As a Projector, your energy is here to move in its own rhythm, not by force but by alignment. When you honor your wait for the invitation, your path feels both inevitable and strangely effortless — like doors open just as you arrive.

TYPE & STRATEGY

Type and Strategy describe the how. Projector is your energetic baseline. Strategy is the compass — follow Wait for the Invitation and you'll notice less resistance and more magnetic timing.

AUTHORITY

Authority is your inner oracle. With Emotional Authority, clarity isn't rushed — it arrives in layers. Give your body time to settle and the right yes/no will feel unmistakable.

PROFILE

Profile is your life role. 4/6 (Projector • 4/6) describes how you learn, influence, and mature. You're not here to be a copy of anyone — you're here to be a lived example.

INCARNATION CROSS

Incarnation Cross hints at your life theme. The Right Angle Cross of The Unexpected is the story thread that keeps weaving through your experiences, often showing you why you're here more than how.

DECISION TIPS

RELATIONSHIPS

PNK, use Emotional Authority as your decision rhythm. If you're unsure, slow down. Your clearest yes is the one that stays true after the emotional tide passes.

WORK

PNK, work thrives when you're in the right role. Choose environments that respect your strategy and give you room to refine, guide, and shape outcomes.

PNK, you're most magnetic when you're not performing. Let the right people recognize you first — then respond. The correct relationships feel like resonance, not pursuit.

HEALTH

PNK, your body is the truth-barometer. When you're aligned, energy feels clean and sustainable. When you're off, your body will tell you — earlier than your mind.
